WATERCOLOR, Santa Rosa Beach, FL

Enjoy all the exclusive benefits of WaterColor living from this magnificent gulf-view condo. Beautifully remodeled, it has new wood flooring and fresh decor along with new windows and doors recently replaced by the HOA. The sun-kissed living room has a bank of windows with light filtering softly through plantation shutters. French doors open onto a terrace with an inviting path leading to the nearby pool, beach and amenities. Chefs will delight in the unusually spacious well-appointed kitchen, something rarely found in other condos. Dark mahogany cabinets are topped with beautiful marble granite countertops. The center island with its gas range and hood is conveniently situated for chatting with guests at the dining table while cooking dinner. Head into the first-floor master suite which has an adjoining private sitting area and a neat Murphy bed for accommodating extra guests. Climb the impressive staircase, noting the series of windows as you head up to the guest bedroom, which has ample space for two queen beds. A second master suite on this floor has a luxury ensuite showcasing a granite twin vanity and deep soaking tub. A series of decks and outdoor spaces provide intimate hubs for chatting and relaxing and larger spaces for outdoor dining and entertaining. Overlooking the white sandy beach and close to Seaside, Florida, this superbly located condo has two designated parking spaces. It opens the door to all the WaterColor amenities including Camp WaterColor with its lazy river and a boathouse stocked with kayaks and paddleboards for exploring beautiful Western Lake. With its enviable gulf-front location and recent updates, this condo is priced as a great entry point to the WaterColor lifestyle.
