WATERCOLOR, Santa Rosa Beach, FL

Designed by TS Adams Studio, this WaterColor masterpiece is an exceptional collection of amenities and location. From its spacious floor plan of just under 5,000 square feet to its thoughtful finishes including pecky cypress ceilings and wide-plank refinished flooring, this home is one of the top rentals in WaterColor thanks to its lush, private setting; large, heated pool; and, generous pie-shaped lot that overlooks a serene pond. Step beyond mature pines to the multiple porches and on into the interior of the home, which features all en suite bedrooms -- ideal for large gatherings or corporate retreats. The gourmet kitchen boasts top-of-the-line appliances, marble countertops and a massive breakfast bar with seating in an open-concept design. A large dining area has seating for 10 and spacious living spaces give everyone their own nook. The interiors are only outdone by the resort-style outdoor spaces this home provides including a heated pool with sun shelf and water feature, hot tub, outdoor fireplace and kitchen, audio surround system, outdoor shower and plenty of deck space for relaxing and entertaining. Parking is ample for at least four vehicles. Guests will also enjoy the well-appointed carriage house that sits above a two-car garage with combined living/sleeping quarters, a private bath and a full kitchen. In addition to the remarkable property features, WaterColor guests have access to a host of world-class amenities including a beach club, Camp WaterColor, outdoor recreation opportunities and all of the shopping and dining your heart desires. Situated between Camp WaterColor and Publix in WaterColor's Phase II, this property is a respite not soon to be forgotten.
